B) The Concessional premium payment can be done as per the table below:

Advance FFC in addition to current year's FFC	Discount in % of payable extra FFC
Extra 1 instalment	5%
Extra 2 instalments	8%
Extra 3 instalments	10%

C) Member can avail the facility of taking multiple fraternity contribution units so as to receive death benefit in multiples of 10 lakh (i.e. 1, 1.5, 2, 2.5, 3 units etc. for 10 - 15 - 20 – 25 - 30 lacs).

D) The amount of the fraternity death benefit, payable to the family of the diseased is capped at Rs. 10 lakh after due deductions. This is receivable to the nominee anytime in the event of death of the member.

E) Exit option offers fraternity death amount (Rs. 10 lakhs) after completion of 31 years of membership. This change has been proposed in response to the demand from members asking the refund during their lifetime.

F) The Social Security Scheme membership is open up to 60 years of age only.

G) For the member joining above the age of 55, he will have to submit a good health declaration along with medical certificate with reports (Haemogramme, USG Abdomen, HbA1C, X-ray chest Ap, ECG, S. Creatinine, SGPT, S. Alk. Phosphatase, USG, PSA (for Men only), S. Creatinine, Urine Test etc.)

H) The advance (Rs. 12,000/-) that is taken at the joining of the Scheme will be kept as an interest free deposit with the Scheme and will be refunded along with the final disbursement amount after due deductions, if any.

I) The Scheme runs as per the financial year April to March. The fraternity contribution is expected to be paid before 31st of May without penalty. Late payments after that will attract penalty as per the rules. Rs. 100/- + GST upto 31st July, Rs. 300/- + GST upto 30th Sept each year.

J) If FFC is not paid by 1st Oct your name will be deleted. He will be considered as a revivable defaulter for the next year. The membership will cease to exist if two consecutive fraternity contributions are not paid. He will have to apply as a fresh member if he wishes to join the Scheme again.

K) Revival of the deleted membership is possible by paying charges according to the table below. After Revival the membership will be considered as a continuous membership since his joining date i.e. seniority will be maintained and previous instalments will be considered. Member has to take new membership if he fails to revive his membership at the third year.

Rs. 12000/- Fraternity Contribution Deposit or as appropriately relevant at the time of revival.	+	Admission Fee as per age group at time of reapplying + GST.	+	All defaulting years' FFC to be paid with + Rs. 300/- late fee for each year + GST as applicable.
